I spoke with David this morning, and we realized that every customer service email pre-2014 was part of an exchange server migrated by Scot which has now been wiped. It looks like there's no way to access any of those older emails, so I will grab everything as far back as I can.

Thanks Joseph.

David - is there any other way to run a search on this CustomerService@tanbooks.com inbox for the date range: 2008 to 2014 or to present?

Please reply.

Thanks,
Mara

Good Will Publishers Mail - Re: Inbox Search: Fundamentals of Catholic Dogma

Our copyright attorney has requested that we conduct a search of the CustomerService@tanbooks.com inbox for any emails, orders, or correspondence regarding:

Fundamentals of Catholic Dogma

The search date range would be: 2008 forward.

Could you schedule that this week?

I may need you to save pdfs of the email chains in a Q drive folder. Or if you or Paul have a better suggestion to archive the search results please let me know.

Thanks,
